It was Tom Francis with whom Dr. Smith had the difficulty and not S. Marion. It was Francis who procured the warrant. He is a gentleman well known by the residents of Atlanta. His character has never been assailed. He is quiet and attentive to his business, and in no way was connected with the Smith affair. THE CONSTITUTION gladly makes this correction. Mr. Marion says that Mr. Smith has never been in the house and that he does not know that he ever spoke to Dr. Smith.

INTERESTING TO COAL CONSUMERS.

Why the Price of Coal Was Not Raised—Lively Interview.

It was freely rumored a few weeks ago that the price of coal would be raised on the first of September. The rumor did not advance on the named and several days ago the following notice appeared in THE CONSTITUTION:

GOOD NEWS FOR THE POOR.

"We learn that, at the solicitation of some of the leading coal dealers here, the Knoxville 'coal pool' have consented to sell their leaders to the public in any quantity, from a ton to a car load, at $4.25 for the balance of this month. This will enable the poor man to buy his coal just as cheap as the rich man. This is as it ought to be."

This explanation of the coal pool is not satisfactory to all the parties concerned and yesterday a CONSTITUTION reporter called on Mr. J.

Wilson, the well-known coal dealer and asked what was the real reason why prices were not as good as in the summer of 1917 and inquired as to the prospect of a full supply of coal for the coming winter. The reporter asked,

"How is coal today?"

"It is black as ever, and is going right along at the same rates at $4.25 per ton," replied Mr. Wilson.

"What coal do you handle?"

"We handle only the Glen Mary coal. We have found by experience that this general household coal is the best that has no superior. It lights easily, burns up clean and makes very little soot or ashes. It lasts well. With all these good qualities it is a cheap coal."

"What is the real reason why the price of coal went up on the first of September '17?"

"Simply because our company has invested about ten thousand dollars in building a large coal elevator, the only way to get rid of the coal is to prove, in such waste and expensive handling cost. As a consequence when the 'leading coal dealers' met to put the price of coal up to $4.60 per ton, we flatly told them we were not going to advance for this month, so we had to take no advance for this month, so we had to take no advance for this month, and could afford to sell at a lower price than the ruling price."

"Then the statement that 'some of the leading coal dealers' had prevailed on the Knoxville pool not to raise the price was true?"

"The word is no. On the contrary these 'leading coal dealers' did everything in their power to establish this $4.60 rate and when they found that would not raise from $2.75 they forced the price up to $4.60."

"Then it looks like your company deserves credit for preventing the proposed raise in your head on these 'leading coal dealers,' who handle the Knoxville coal pool coats?"

"It looks just a little that way," said Mr. Brown.

"What is the capacity of your elevator?"

"Ten thousand tons and we have it full at season rates, and will keep prices there. We keep our elevator full at these prices until spring. We add to it daily and are never in danger of running out."

"How can you be able to supply your customers with dry lump coal all winter?"

"Yes, sir; every pound will be as dry and chmarks a new bond.

"Your taught Mr. Wilson, and the reporter v may thinking of the big supply of clean, dry in the evaporator at summer prices which wou would useful during the hard winter weather is coming.

Messrs. Selig Bros. & Co., the enterprising manufacturing clothiers, No. 9 Whitehall street, something to say of interest to everybody.

They have bought a lot 60x175 feet, on B street, near McDaniel street, of J. C. There will be 6000 and the traffic will be as good as the cash taken, which will not be more than 60 days.

chances go as lively as they have since announcement was first made. They propose the raffie will be conducted by grand and interested citizens of Atlanta, who will see that conducted in a fair and just manner.

This is done to bring customers to their store as to sell out their immense stock of goods. They have no other way of getting their hands wish to keep their entire force busy all day therefore they have instituted the above plan.

The ladies of Trinity church will give a lawn party, for the benefit of Trinity parsonage, on next Thursday night, at the parsonage. Everybody is expected to come. The very best of refreshments will be served.

Master Pete Peckham is quite sick at his home on Capitol Avenue. Young Peckham is a page in the senate and is highly liked. He is afflicted with general tetanus, but is now much better. Dr. Divine, who is attending him, says the family are badly in need of assistance and it would be an act of humanity for the senate to continue the lad's pay.

Mrs. S. B. Shaw, who formerly kept the fashionable boarding house at 150 and 152 Whitehall street, has been in the city for the past few weeks, and has rented the above houses to J. C. Scarratt, who will open there on the 15th instant, a first-class European hotel and boarding house. Mrs. Shaw will remain in the city for a short time.

It was Tom Francis with whom Dr. Smith had the difficulty and not Dr. Marion. It was Francis who swore out the warrant. Mr. Marion is a gentleman and known by the old residents of Atlanta. His character has never been assailed. He is quiet and attentive to his business, and in no way was connected with the Smith affair. The Constitution daily makes this correction. Mr. Marion says that Dr. Smith has never been in his house and that he does not know that he ever spoke to Dr. Smith.

His Cranium Cracked.
Luther Howell, a colored street Arab was struck in the head with a stone last night by another boy, making an angry thump on a door. Dr. Byrd dressed the wound and the boy was taken to his home on Calhoun street.

INTERESTING TO COAL CONSUMERS.
Why the Price of Coal Was Not Raised—A Lively Interview.

It was freely rumored a few weeks ago that the price of coal would be raised on the first of September. The rumor did not advance on the date named and several days ago following notice appeared in the Constitution:

"We learn that the solicitation of some of the leading coal dealers here, the Knoxville 'coal pool,' have consented to allow the dealers to sell by quantity, from 100 tons to 4,000 tons, at $2.50 per ton for the month of September. This will enable the poor man to buy coal as cheap as the rich man. This is a real boon to the poor."

This explanation of the situation did not prove satisfactory to all the best coal dealers. They wanted a Constitution reporter called on Mr. J. C. Wilson, the well known coal dealer and asked what the reason was for the coal not being advanced on the first of September, and inquired as to the prospect of a coal pool for the coming winter. The reporter asked:

"How is coal today?"
"It is as black as ever, and is going right along at summer rates at $2.50 per ton," replied Mr. Wilson.

"What coal do you handle?"
"We handle only the Glen Mary coal. We have found it to be the best coal in the market, and we sell it at a low price. It is a cheap coal."

"What is the true reason why the price of coal did not advance on the first of September?"
"Simply because our company has invested about ten thousand dollars in buying a large coal elevator, the only one in the south, and we do not want to raise the price of coal until we have it in the elevator. We will not advance for this month as we had 2,000 tons of coal in our elevator, and could afford to sell at the price."

"Then the statement that 'some of the leading coal dealers' had the Knoxville coal pool not to raise the price, is not true?"
"Not a word of it. On the contrary these 'leading coal dealers' are doing their best to establish this $2.50 rate and when they found we would not raise our price they were forced to pull down, and after a while the other dealers, they reluctantly cut off the thirty five cents a ton."

"Then it looks like your company deserves the credit of preventing the proposed raise in the price of coal here and saving the poor man a few cents a ton?"
"It looks just a little that way," said Mr. Wilson.

"What is the capacity of your elevator?"
"The thousand tons, and we have it full at summer rates, and will keep prices there. We will raise the price for these prices until next spring. We will be able to supply your customers with dry lump coal all winter."

"Mr. Wilson, every pound will be as dry and as good as new coal?"
"I can tell you, and the reporter went on to say that he was going to buy a few tons of coal in the elevator at summer prices, which would be useful during the hard winter weather that is coming."

A Connection.
In this morning's issue of THE CONSTITUTION you say that Dr. Smith has a drug store on Marietta street. He once had an interest with me, the styled firm being Dr. W. A. Smith & Co. On September 1st, 1885, I purchased his entire interest.

IMMEDIATE DELIVERY.
Postmaster Wilson Getting Ready to Start the New System.

Last night eleven o'clock, a CONSTITUTION man found Postmaster Wilson at the office busy winding up the week's work. The reporter threw an interrogation point at him, which brought forth the following:

"There is no news tonight. Yes there is, too. On the first of next month the immediate delivery system will go into effect. I have heard of it for some time, and I will employ several boys in a few days as messengers. Can't tell you how many I will need, but will start with five or six. I think the immediate delivery system will be of great benefit to the people, and I am glad to see it go into effect. The system will not be used only in towns with less than four thousand population."

SPECIAL NOTICE
The Menko Clothing House, celebrated for twenty years as the cheapest and most reliable of the Atlanta houses, is no longer at the old corner, but moved to No. 3 Whitehall, where the friends they have made in the last twenty years by fair dealing and good bargains will find them.

Having sold out all of our old stock we are now in full blast at No. 3 Whitehall. All new goods! No old stock! Call, see and be convinced. Why buy old rejected stock when Menko sells you the new goods for the same money.

Hats, Shoes and Shirts.
MENKO,
No. 3 Whitehall.

The following unclassified communication was handed George E. King & Co., yesterday, by a shrewd and careful builder. Others who are in need of hardware can save money by buying goods of this kind.

The following is the title they received:
ATLANTA, Ga., September 10, 1885.—Messrs Geo. E. King & Co., Dear Sirs: Having need for a lot of hardware, I posted myself as to prices and quality of goods in your store. I found you to be the most reliable and cheapest dealer in the city, and I am sure that if you care to use me I can do so.

TO MY FRIENDS AND PATRONS.
During a month's trip to New York and other fashion centers, I availed myself of the opportunity of inspecting and studying the latest Paris, London and New York fashions in ladies' dresses. My acquaintance with some of the leading dress makers of the city, and the study of the latest and most fashionable styles, has enabled me to make a collection of the latest and most fashionable styles, and I am now in a position to offer to my friends and patrons the latest and most fashionable styles in ladies' dresses.

DOING UP DUFFY.
A Conversation Between Two Atlanta Ladies on Peachtree.

Mrs. Smith—"Do you know, Mrs. Goodfellow, what this man Duffy is doing for the people of Atlanta?"

Mrs. Goodfellow—"Let me see, who is Duffy?"

Mrs. S.—"Why, don't you know Duffy? He is the Peachtree street grocer. I thought everyone knew Duffy."

Mrs. G.—"Well, I know who you mean now, but I never had any dealings with him. I trade near his store."

Mrs. S.—"Well, I buy all my groceries from Duffy, and you know that he sold me 30 pounds of butter for 30 cents a pound, and 30 pounds of sugar for 30 cents a pound, and 30 pounds of coffee for 30
